DEBATE NETWORK NEPAL

Press Release

Sinamangal, Kathmandu

18th Nov. 2015

Debate Network Nepal, the leading debating body of Nepal, is organizing Nepal Bolchha, which is a nationwide junior level public speaking championship. Bridgewater Debate Association is hosting the championship where students from grade 9 and 10 are invited to participate. The event is powered by Bridgewater Education Network.

The program will formally begin from 9th of Mangsir and will end on 15th of Mangsir. Each speaker may choose a topic for himself/herself staying under the theme of the competition and can choose the language category too - English or Nepali.

The students participating shall receive training on public speaking the opening day of the championship. DNN chair and international debating judge Pradeep Ghimire and renowned motivational speaker Ranjit Acharya have been confirmed as the trainers. The earlier rounds of championship will see DNN's regular judges while the finals shall have some of the most known well faces in public speaking.

Then, the real championship begins with the Preliminary Round upon successful completion of which, the young public speakers climb up to the next round i.e. the Advanced Round. Afterwards, the grand finale i.e. Champions Rounds will see 5 public speakers from each category to eventually discover the best ones.

There are also cash prizes and gift hampers to the finalists as well. Champions bag Rs 10,000 cash while runner ups take Rs 7500 and Rs 5000 respectively apart from certificates, medal and trophies.

As there is very less big opportunities for students to show their talents regarding public speaking here in the nation, Nepal Bolchha comes as a perfect platform for those students who are looking forward to learn and compete with other students from all over the nation.

The details and registration form of the Championship are also uploaded online at www.tinyurl.com/NepalBolchhaJ1 and can be filled up to the 5th of Mangsir.

DNN is announcing the venue, themes and other details very soon.
